LIBRARY MEDIA CENTER 6000 WEST OLIVE AVENUE GLENDALE, ARIZONA 85302 TELEPHONE: 623.845.3112 FAX: 623.845.3102

Revised, Oct., 2009.

The Library Media Center provides books and databases to locate resources on Native American culture and history.

Databases

Ethnic Newswatch

<http://www.gc.maricopa.edu/LMC/databases/#CullIssues>

“Ethnic Newswatch is an interdisciplinary, bilingual (English and Spanish) and comprehensive full text database of the newspapers, magazines and journals of the ethnic, minority and native press. Designed to provide the ‘other side of the story,’ ENW titles offer additional viewpoints from those proffered by the mainstream press. Coverage begins in 1990.” (EW)

Daily Life Online and World Folklore and Folklife.

<http://www.gc.maricopa.edu/LMC/databases/#CullIssues>

These two databases from Greenwood provide a variety of resources related to the culture of other societies and include information on the arts, education, family life, holidays & festivals, religion & beliefs, mythology, etc. Search by keywords or use the index to the database.

Journal Subscriptions

The LMC subscribes to journals in both paper and electronic formats. You can access the full-texts of articles in the journals listed below from the "Articles & Databases" page – Ethnic Newswatch database. These are journals or newspapers that Ethnic Newswatch currently maintains; the database also has the full-text for other Native American periodicals that it no longer maintains the current issues.

Use the "Serials Solutions" link on the "Articles & Databases" page to identify other journals which may be available in full-text from other databases.
