

DANCE! at the LIBRARY

GCC STUDENT'S GUIDE to ONLINE RESOURCES

What's your research topic? Check out these databases:

Researching a dancer or choreographer?

General /All Subjects

- Academic Search Complete
- Project MUSE

Biography

- Biography in Context

Researching ethnic/world dance?

General/All Subjects

- Academic Search Complete
- Kanopy (videos)

Cultural, Ethnic & Area Studies

- African American Experience
- PBS Video

- Latino American Experience
- Project MUSE
- National Geographic Library

Researching a health topic related to dance?

General /All Subjects

- Academic Search Complete

Nursing, Medicine & Health

- CINAHL
- Health Reference Center
- Health Source - Consumer

Researching urban/street dance?

General /All Subjects

- Academic Search Complete

- MasterFILE Premier
- Project MUSE

News

- ProQuest Newspapers Multi-Search
- Infotrac Newsstand

1. Start at lib.gccaz.edu/lmc.
2. Click Library Databases, located at the top of the list on the left side of the search box.
3. Use the Subject List to select the database categories listed above.

Web sites

Try searching [your topic keyword/s] research site:.edu to find scholarly sites about your topic.

- danceheritage.org/treasures.html – Information about famous dancers and choreographers
- worldartswest.org/main/locator.asp – Online Encyclopedia of World Dance focuses on dance styles
- <https://is.gd/danceguide> – GCC Library's Dance Guide
- artsalive.ca/en/dan – Sections include Dance 101 with Dance Forms & Styles and Links & Resources